

WORLD FOOD PRIZE FOUNDATION
NORMAN E. BORLAUG
INTERNATIONAL DIALOGUE

Dear

The World Food Prize Foundation is honored to host the 2024 Norman E. Borlaug International Dialogue, also known as the "Borlaug Dialogue," which will take place October 29-31, 2024, as part of the World Food Prize Foundation's annual series of events in Des Moines, Iowa, U.S.

The Borlaug Dialogue annually brings together individuals from more than 65 countries to address cutting-edge issues related to global food security and nutrition. Global scientists, agribusiness leaders, food systems experts, educators and students will join the 2024 Borlaug Dialogue to discuss transformative solutions to achieve a sustainable, equitable and nourishing food system.

Featuring keynote speakers, breakout sessions, side events, meals, receptions and countless opportunities for networking, the 2023 Borlaug Dialogue gathered over 1,400 attendees, representing 600 organizations and 83 countries. An even greater and more robust attendance is expected for the 2024 Borlaug Dialogue while features. For more information regarding the event, please visit:
https://www.worldfoodprize.org/en/events/borlaug_dialogue/norman_e_borlaug_international_dialogue/2024_borlaug_dialogue/

Registrants of the event understand that they are responsible for any transportation and hotel accommodations when arriving to and departing from Des Moines. For those obtaining Visas, it is pertinent that they abide by all U.S. Visa requirements, including appropriate departure from the U.S.

WORLD FOOD PRIZE FOUNDATION
NORMAN E. BORLAUG
INTERNATIONAL DIALOGUE

We are looking forward to welcoming an international audience of food security and agricultural leaders in Des Moines this October.

Best regards,

Ambassador Terry E. Branstad
President
World Food Prize Foundation